AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th Day of January, 1749.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS ſince the Publication of his Majeſty's Order in Council of the 14th of December laſt, For prohibiting the Removal of any of the Horned Cattle for the Space of Two Months, Diverſe Informations have been received, whereby it appears, that great Inconveniencies are likely to happen from the ſaid Prohibition to the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and many other Parts of the Kingdom; which having been this Day taken into Conſideration ——His Majeſty doth therefore order, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, that the ſaid Order in Council of the 14th of December laſt, be, and it is hereby Vacated and Repealed; and that the Order of Council of the 22d of March 1747, and all the Rules and Regulations therein contained, ſhall be obſerved, kept, and performed in every Part thereof, until further Order.

And for the better Execution of ſo much of his Majeſty's ſaid Order in Council of the 22d of March 1747, as relates to the killing and burying the diſtemper'd Cattle; it is hereby further ordered, That the Owners of all Horned Cattle do, as ſoon as the Diſtemper ſhall appear in or among any of the ſaid Cattle, immediately give Notice thereof to the Conſtable of the Town or Pariſh, and alſo to the Church-wardens and Overſeers of the Pariſh or Place where ſuch infected Cattle ſhall be, of the Appearance of ſuch Infection, or to any Inſpector already appointed or to be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace for the Diſtrict where ſuch Pariſh or Place ſhall lie.

And his Majeſty doth hereby ſtrictly charge and command all his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the ſeveral Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities, Liberties, and Towns Corporate within this Kingdom, and alſo the Commiſſioners of the Land Tax authorized to act herein, to carry his Majeſty's ſaid Order of Council of the 22d of March 1747, into due Execution. And alſo the ſeveral Acts of Parliament made in relation to the ſaid Cattle; and that they do likewiſe cauſe the Penalties, directed by the ſaid Acts, to be inflicted on all Perſons who ſhall diſobey any of the Rules, Orders and Regulations made by his Majeſty in Council.

And for the better notifying of this Order, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the ſame be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and be alſo inſerted in the next London Gazette; and be likewiſe read in all Pariſh Churches, Chapels, and other Places ſet apart for Divine Worſhip, on the Firſt Sunday after the Publication hereof, inſtead of the Order in Council of the 14th of December laſt, which is hereby repealed; and that for the Time to come, his Majeſty's Order in Council of the 22d of March 1747, be continued to be read, as is therein directed.

William Sharpe.

Moſcow, Dec. 27. Yeſterday her Imperial Majeſty, accompanied by the Grand Duke and Dutcheſs, and ſeveral Lords and Ladies of the Court, left this City on her Return to Petersbourg; and this Morning moſt of the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters ſet out to follow her Majeſty.

Petersbourg, Jan. 3. On Monday the 29th of laſt Month, being the Empreſs of Ruſſia's Birth-Day, her Imperial Majeſty, on her Return hither from Moſcow, arrived and celebrated the ſame at Czarskio Ciezlo, one of her Country Houſes about 18 Engliſh Miles off; and on Wedneſday laſt at Noon her Imperial Majeſty, and the Great Duke and Dutcheſs, arrived at her Palace here in Town; on which Occaſion Three Rounds of the Cannon at the Citadel and the Admiralty were fired, to give Notice of this agreeable News to the Inhabitants of this Place.

St. Sebaſtian, Jan. 4. An Advice-Boat is arrived here from the Carraccas, and has brought the Guypuſcoa Company ſome Diſpatches concerning their Affairs in that Country, the Contents of which are, that the Inhabitants thereof ſtill perſiſt in their Reſolution of carrying on Commerce independent of the Company, and that they had armed all the Negroes they could poſſibly get together, amounting to about 6000, in order to oppoſe any Succours which the Company's Agents may receive from Spain. The Company have laid the Contents of theſe Diſpatches before the King, and begged his Majeſty's further Protection and Aſſiſtance.

Leghorn, Jan. 4. The Magiſtrates of this City, in Conſideration of the great Increaſe of its Inhabitants during the late War, and that there are at this Time a great Want of Houſes, have reſolved to erect a new Suburb on the Weſt Side of it. Some Days ago a Felucca, having on Board a Courier bound from Corſica to the Court of France, was taken by a Tuneſian Galliot, which the Marqueſs de Curſay, Commander of the French Troops in Corſica, being informed of, immediately ſent out three ſmall Veſſels, with 40 Grenadiers on Board, in Purſuit of her, who ſoon came up with her, but ſo far was ſhe from engaging them, that ſhe abandoned her Prize, and made all the Sail ſhe could to eſcape. The Felucca is ſince arrived here, but as ſhe had ſome Communication with the ſaid Corſair, it has been thought adviſeable to oblige her to perform Quarantain.
